
2021

Not surprisingly, 2021 proved to be another quiet year. Due to government restrictions, pipe band practices were unable to resume until the autumn.

The band continued to engage with its members and supporters by producing a number of online videos. One of our videos was in recognition of the Remembrance Day commemorations in November. Unfortunately, as a pipe band, we were unable to play at this year's very pared down event.

Merit Award and will be presented to the band piper who performs the lament, Flowers of the Forest, at the Commando Memorial on future Remembrance Sundays.

Financially, the band had more outgoings than income due to not being able to perform. It is likely that, when the band does return to fund raising performances, we will have to look at other ways of raising money to support our expected increase in expenditure.

The connection with the Commando Association and the pipe band remains as strong as ever and at a ceremony at the Alexandra Hotel on 13th November, the Association presented a beautifully sculpted award in the image of Bill Milne, the famous piper (and commando) from the Second World War. It will be known as the Piper of
